Profile

I am full stack web developer with a background in Audio Engineering. I love to code in Javascript as enjoy solving complex problems, both on the frontend and backend. I am fluent in English, and can express myself well both in written and verbal communication.

Education

Bootcamp Degree in Full Stack Web Development

05/2020 - 08/2020

SPICED Academy, Berlin

I've learned how to build web pages and started to work with responsive design using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript with programming fundamentals such as debugging, the command line, and GitHub.

I've created server-side JavaScript applications using Node.js, and learned to use third party APIs to create dynamic web pages. My frontend abilities leveled up by creating powerful single page web applications with popular frameworks such as Vue, React, and Angular.

Electronics and Telecommunications

09/2001 - 07/2006

ITIS Blaise Pascal, Cesena

High School Degree in Electronics and Telecommunications.
